A Swedish-American Fraternal Organization

CONSTITUTION

ORGANIZED

New Haven, Connecticut, U.S.A., September 18, 1896

INCORPORATED

Under the laws of the state of Connecticut, March 29, 1899

VASA ORDER EMBLEM

The Vasa Order Emblem is composed of the following symbols:

- The letters VO for Vasa Order superimposed on a Maltese Cross.
- The Maltese Cross, superimposed on a Wreath, was used by the first known sick benefit organization during the Christian Era by the Knights of Saint John. The organization was instituted in the year 1099 for the care of the sick among the Pilgrims and Crusaders. Twenty years later, in the year 1119, the Knights Templar were organized for a similar purpose and their Banner had a Maltese Cross to symbolize “Knighthood” and “Templarism.”
- The Wreath reminds us to keep in sacred memory departed members, and to honor the many brave, noble and great achievements which have given Sweden and its people an honorable name throughout the world.
- The Sheaf signifies unity and was adopted by Gustav Eriksson Wasa in his Coat of Arms as a sign of uniting all the Swedish people during the early 1500s prior to his coronation as King Gustav Wasa.

The colors of the Vasa Order Emblem are as follows:

- The letters VO in gold.
- The Maltese Cross in blue with white outlines.
- The Wreath and Sheaf in gold.

C. W. Malmquist, one of the organizers of the Vasa Order of America and its third grand master, designed all Charters and Emblems, which were approved and adopted during the second meeting of the grand Lodge in 1899.
